

How does it Work?

Your business or businesses are visited at regular intervals within a predetermined time frame.

The maintenance of each area of your facility is graded according to set criteria that can be tailored to your company's needs.

Each of these reports is made available to you online. These reports allow you to view specific data on request and then sort information by:

Contractor / Supervisor

- Call up scores of your Custodial Service Provider.
- Drill down to problem areas
- Create history/performance reports by contractor

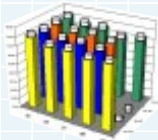

Province:

- View provincial store data
- Determine regional problems
- Create history/ performance Reports by province

District:

- View data by DM region
- Manage cleaning results by District Manager
- Create history/ performance reports by district
- Generate incentive performance

Comments:

- General overview,
- Snapshot view of rep comments and or Store Manager comments

Percentage Score by Store

- Call up history on an individual store
- View the scores by each department
- View history over 12 months

Online Custodial Quality Assurance

What is Online Custodial Q.A.?

It is simply a management tool that works on the principle of "You can't manage what you can't measure." Custodial Quality Assurance is part of Wesclean's unique all-inclusive approach to cleaning that helps to maintain a clean and safe work environment, increase employee productivity and enhance the value and integrity of your buildings.

Having clean floors and restrooms speaks volumes about your business. A high level of maintenance in these two areas is vital to the success of your company. Cleanliness is directly related to your ability to attract customers and protect the health of everyone in your business. Floors and Restrooms carry the most weight in terms of how your company is perceived by your customers. In cases where these duties are assigned to a third party contractor; they can be difficult to manage... unless you have Wesclean's C.Q.A. working for you.

Let us help to manage your cleaning needs!

The Value of Online Custodial Q.A.?

Janitorial Quality Assurance is a Value Added Service provided by Wesclean to our customers.

Our Sales Representatives visit your facility to ensure that it is being properly maintained and that the products we supply to you are being used correctly.

The Shared Benefit of Custodial Q.A.

Custodial Quality Assurance. is an independent monitoring system and a three-way partnership between Wesclean, your janitorial service provider and you.

The best products and systems are of little value if they are not used correctly and our representatives help resolve issues that result from a training gap. In order to ensure that you get the best results Wesclean supports your custodial service providers with continuous training and increased product knowledge.

Our industry is changing. Advances in technology are continuing to improve the performance and safety of the products that Wesclean provides and there is no substitute for continuing education.
